Those who have stomach trouble, no matter how slight, should give every possible help to the digestive organs, so that the food may be digested with the least effort. This may be done by taking something containing natural digestive properties something like Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Kodol is a preparation of vegetable acids and contains the very same juices found in a healthy stomach. It digests what you eat. Sold by Leroy Farmer.

Mrs. Frank Mountjoy and little daughter, Lily Bell, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Snyder went to Kansas City Monday evening.

Mrs. Nannie Steele and daughter, Miss Nadine, came in from Marshall Monday evening. Miss Nadine has been gone since the first of June, making an extended tour of the East.

"We never repent of eating too little" was one of the ten rules of life of Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the rule applies to every one without exception during this hot weather, because it is hard for food, even in small quantities, to be digested when the blood is at high temperature. At this season we should eat sparingly and properly. We should also help the stomach as much as possible by the use of a little Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia, which will rest the stomach by digesting the food itself. Sold by Leroy Farmer.

Miss Eugenia Ardinger returned from Kansas City Saturday evening. Her sister, Mrs. W. G. Thompson, of that city accompanied her home for a visit.

Miss Annie Blincoe and two nephews, Horace and Clifton, of Higginsville arrived yesterday evening for a visit with the family of Frank Stewart.

Robert Carter, the little son of Dr. F. L. Carter, stuck a nail into his foot Friday nearly an inch. In playing he jumped off a piano box and landed on a nail protruding from a board. Of course the injury is painful and will require much attention, so that Dr. and Mrs. Carter could not attend August Meeting Sunday.

R. L. Faulconer and wife returned last Monday from a visit with the former's mother and other relatives at Lexington. Mr. Faulconer's mother is well advanced in years and all but two of her children reside near her. She always looks forward to R. L.'s visit and enjoys it greatly. He formerly made it a habit to eat dinner with her every July 4, but being in the sheriff's office he is compelled to go when he can and not to suit himself. —Warrensburg Standard Herald.

HENRY W. FLETCHER BURIED HERE

Report That He Committed Suicide Untrue.

The remains of Henry W. Fletcher, who died in Kansas City late Sunday night, were brought down Tuesday and interred in Macphelah. The body was taken directly from the station to the cemetery, where short burial services were conducted by Rev. R. R. Briney.

Mrs. F. N. Adams, of Ft. Smith, Ark.; Dr. and Mrs. Carter, Dr. C. Fletcher, Geo. Fletcher, Fletcher Carter, Miss Marguerite Carter and Miss Nell Fletcher, of Sedalia, were here to attend the funeral. The deceased's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fletcher, his widow and three children, Gladys, Leslie and Harry, accompanied the body from Kansas City.

The Kansas City papers stated that Mr. Fletcher had killed himself by taking laudanum; but such a report is untrue. His death was due to heart failure.

MERCHANTS TAKE A SLIDE

Kansas City Smiths Beat Them 6 to 5.

The Smiths came down from Kansas City Sunday and took on the Merchants with a 6 to 5 score. The grounds were covered with gumbo on account of the recent rains and the river's overflow, so that it was with great ease that a player lost his balance.

The game was a series of voluntary or involuntary slides. Running was easy, but stopping impossible.

The work of Harry Mallott was the feature of the game. He accepted 10 chances and got 9 of them clean and at the bat got 4 hits out of 5 times up.

The batteries were: Merchants, Lauchner and Shinn; Smiths, Crossley and Butterworth; Umpire, Foster.

BOATS POPULAR WITH LEXINGTONIANS

Both Tennessee and Chester Take on Passengers Here.

The Tennessee and Chester both passed here going from St. Louis to Kansas City Sunday afternoon. The Tennessee came in about 2 o'clock and tied up for about ten minutes. About 25 passengers boarded her for Napoleon and came back on the train last night. A dozen went on to Kansas City. The Chester arrived at 3:30 and took on 25 passengers for Napoleon.

The Tennessee tied up over night at Napoleon, but the Chester went on stream.

Roberts Sues Wabash.

Macon, Mo., Aug. 9.—Kansas City Star.

Suit for $1,000 was filed in the Macon circuit this morning by James L. Roberts of Marshall, stenographer for Judge Samuel Davis of the Fifteenth judicial circuit, against the Wabash Railroad company on somewhat peculiar allegations. Mr. Roberts states that while a passenger on the Wabash railroad on his way from Glasgow in Howard county to Macon, it became necessary for him to stop over at the Salisbury station to await his train; that while there he stepped into the ticket office to get a telegram blank; that after writing his message he was without provocation assaulted by the station agent or operator and forcibly ejected from the office; that the station agent called plaintiff insulting names, and attacked and bruised plaintiff about the head, neck and body. Plaintiff asks $500 actual damages and $500 exemplary, alleging that the attack was "entirely without provocation and from an evil heart."

Mr. Roberts is well known in central northern Missouri, having been for many years officially connected with the circuit courts in those sections.

McCoy-Wilson

Married at Kansas City, Saturday Aug. 10th at 8 o'clock in the private office of the Convention Hall, by the Rev. F. L. Street, Mr. W. A. McCoy and Miss Minnie B. Wilson, both of Kansas City.

The bride is a charming young lady and is well known in Lexington. She is a sister of Mrs. E. M. Davis of this city and has visited here frequently. The groom bears the reputation of being an industrious young man and an attractive gentleman. For a number of years he has been connected with the L. B. Price Mercantile Co.

Mr. and Mrs. McCoy will be at home after Sept. 1st at 19 South Rosedale Ave., Rosedale, Kans.

Sigma Pals Have a Picnic.

The Lexington chapter of Sigma Psi and enough young gentlemen to go around enjoyed a delightful lunch on the point Monday evening. After the yards had been disposed of, the party adjourned to the opera house and witnessed the play.

IT WAS A HOT SATURDAY

Conductor Jim Connors Overcome By the Heat.

Saturday was perhaps the most oppressively hot day of the year. The air was still and humid and the sun was strong. People all over town kept their bath tubs and ice boxes working overtime.

Conductor Jim Connors, who runs on the J. C. B. and L. was overcome by the heat at Waverly, and brought here Saturday. For a while he was in a precarious condition, being unconscious. He was revived considerably Sunday, however, and by Monday was sitting up.

Several persons were put out of business for a short time, but outside of Mr. Connors there were no serious prostrations.

To Retire From the Shoe Business.

Frank Kriehn, the pioneer shoe merchant of Lexington, has announced that he will retire from business as soon as he is able to dispose of his stock of goods. The closing out sale will begin soon.

Mr. Kriehn became associated in the shoe business with his father, the late G. A. Kriehn, 41 years ago. He continued with his father for about ten years and later formed a partnership with E. F. Meyer. This latter partnership lasted about fifteen years. Mr. Kriehn's business career has been a long and honorable one and the public will be sorry to lose him from the business community.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is as little way to help. But with that way, two truths must be combined. One is local, one is national, but both are important, both are Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.

The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal remedy. The Restorative reaches throughout entire system, seeking the repair of all internal tissue, and all blood ailments.

The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed surfaces, heals local weaknesses, discharges, while the Restorative, causes new excitement, gives renewed vigor and builds up wasted tissues, bringing about new strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use the
